The Dummy Gazette sent is all right. The order in which the Notifications of the Several Departments are proposed to be published is in accordance with the instructions suggested in the draft Order put up in the linked file.

There are a few Verbal Corrections which have been indicated in pencil in the proofs.

All Civil appointments of Assistant Commissioners and above now appear under "General & Revenue Notifications" in Part I of the Gazette irrespective of the Branch & Department from which the order issues. It is a question whether the appointments of Assistant Commissioners (including under that term Transport Officers) who belong
